APPEAL MADE FOR STARVING IN ERIN

Seek Aid For Starving Women and Children

STIRRING ADDRESSES

D. C. O'Flaherty, of Richmond, Rossa F. Downing, of Washington—Leo P. Harlow Presides.

Stirring addresses in an appeal for the starving women and children of Ireland were made at a mass meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Richmond Theater presided over by Leo P. Harlow.

D. C. OFlaherty, of Richmond, Virginia, former head of the F. Downing, of Washington, and Master D. C. O'Flaherty, the last named about twelve years old, made addresses.

Mr. Harlow, who presided, said the meeting was called for the relief of the starving women and children of Ireland. Continuing he said: "Those of you who do not sympathize with the cause may not have any hesitancy in lending their aid to the starving women and children. They are suffering as the Belgians did .I am not going to ask you to take my word for it and will read from extracts from an article written in this month's Harper's by Sir Philip Gibbs, an Englishman.

Mr. Harlow then read a few extracts showing the deplorable conditions existing in that country today and said it was sufficient to stir the heart of any red blooded American. He described acts of arson and murder committed by the Black and Tans and told of their extreme brutality and of the sacking of Irish towns and of the shooting down of innocent persons.

The presiding officer than introduced D. C. O'Flaherty, of Richmond, Va. In opening his remarks, Mr. O'Flaherty declared that he felt that if he could not speak for a land like Ireland within the shadow of Mount Vernon, he would say, "God Save America."

Continuing Mr. OFlaherty said: "What man can show cause why Ireland should not be free. Ireland gives England $185,000,000 a year and this money is being used to shoot down her people simply because they want to be free. The duty of the American people is for humanity and in the name of humanity I come to you and ask aid for these people. There will never be any peace in this world until Ireland secures her freedom. The fight is not a religious one, but simply one of commerce and keeping Ireland's people down. Hundreds of men, Protestants and Catholics, are in his fight. Ireland is today the only small nation that is not free.

"During the world war 250,000 Irish boys fought for England to make her free. I say that this fight is not a religious war.

"I say when you tear down the Irish flag you run the risk of tearing down the stars and stripes. Where ever you find a man of Irish blood in his veins he wants to see the Irish people free. This fight has been on for 750 years. Anyone who ever thinks Ireland is going to give up this fight is mistaken.

"Don't stop on giving and don't let your prejudice stop you. You can't kill the Irish spirit. It will never die. If England don't behave herself she is just as liable to get in trouble as Germany did."

The next speaker was Rossa F. Downing ,of Washington. There is no more worthy cause than the relief work in Ireland he said. The speaker opened his remarks by declaring that he thought that a branch of the militant organization was to be formed at this meeting. The children of Ireland he asserted are suffering for food. The speaker refuted the statement that the Irish did not fight during the war.

He told of the large number that volunteered and fought under the British banner. They were told that they could fight for the freedom of any small nation except Ireland. The Irish afterward said they would fight no more unless Ireland could obtain her freedom. Ireland, said the speaker, is no part of England, her population being a different race and different people. Mr. Downing asserted: "We do not want to take part in any heritage except our own. We do not want to stand for the heritage of blood, wrongs and tears that England has done."

The speaker denounced as a deliberate lie the story about the Irish being implicated in a German plot. We in America he asserted are fed on this propaganda. The speaker went into the detail leading up to the organization of the Seinn Fein.

Mr. Downing said there is scarcely left in Ireland today sufficient produce to keep one third of the people alive.

The speaker told of her destruction of forty-two creameries to date. Ir Belfast he asserted religious intolerance has been stirred up by a trust and he asserted it only exists in Belfast. For years and years Mr. Downing declared England has endeavored to drive intelligence out of Ireland. Concluding the speaker said: "We will die before we give up the fight. This is the spirit that prevails among her people today."

Master O'Flaherty entertained the audience with a short description of the conditions existing n Ireland and the lad was given a hearty ovation.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Harlow announced that within a short time a committee would be named to make a drive in this city for the cause and it also was proposed in the near future to form a branch of the organization for the recognition of the Irish republic.

Those occupying seats on the stage in addition to the speakers, were William Desmond, M. B. Harlow, J. Fred Birrell and a number of visitors. Music was furnished by an orchestra.

THAT BET

What would you do if a friend bet you that within six months you would not kiss a certain girl whom you had never seen?

What would you do if you had been under the impression at the time you made the bet, that the girl was very unattractive and you suddenly met her and found she was most attractive?

What do you think of what Wolf Kingsearl did in a similar case?

If you want to find out, come to the Alexandria High School auditorium Thursday, Friday or Saturday evening of this week.

The Seniors have been working hard on their play, "Miss Hobbs" and want you to lend the aid of your presence. Nothing so enthuses young actors as a full house, so come out!

In the cast are some of your young friends who have been working hard out of school hours to perfect themselves in the various parts. The play is given for a most laudable object. to raise funds to fnish the track. If you are asked to buy a ticket, remember this, and don't refuse, please.

THE CRUCIFIXION

The choir of St. Paul's Church will sing Stainer's "The Crucifixion," next Monday night, in that church. It has been a number of years since this has been given in Alexandria and it is expected a large congregation will be present to hear this most popular Lenten cantata.

PRAY BEFORE PRISON

Dublin, March 14.—The lord mayor was officially informed last night that the government had decided that the law should take its course in the case of the six prisoners in Mount Joy prison. In consequence, the executions were carried out this morning.

There was a striking demonstration here yesterday, in protest against the execution of the six prisoners accused of complicity in the killing of intelligence officers and participation in an ambuscade.

Banners, bearing such legends as "England murders the innocent in vengeance," were borne through the streets in a procession arranged hastily by women overnight. The procession started at noon from St. Stephen's green, and the paraders marched four abreast in military order, in complete defiance of the military regulations. They received constant accessions in strength from women and girls coming out of the churches, and also were joined by thousands of citizens, including many hundreds of Irish volunteers. There was no interference from the police.

Reaching Mount Joy prison, where the condemned men are incarcerated, the women lined up two deep along the prison wall and planted their banners opposite the gates. Then they knelt and recited the "Rosary," after which they silently dispersed.

The lord mayor of Dublin and Father O'Flanaghan visited the condemned men yesterday morning. They reported they were facing their fate with composure.

Throughout Saturday night the condemned men, who are paired off in cells one above the other, sang Irish songs.

GERMAN WRATH AGAINST SIMON'S

Monarchists Stage Demonstration on Revolution Anniversary

BAVARIA REFUSES

Business Men Alarmed at Economic Results—Boycott Advocated—Simons Calls Move "Gross Blunder"

Berlin, March 14.—Although Foreign Minister Simons survived the storm of criticism, and has received a vote of confidence, the storm has started three important political waves, which rapidly are gathering headway.

Nationalists, monarchists, organizations of Prussian officers and former members of the Baltic expedition, as well as men who engineered the monarchist revolutions of a year ago, combined in a demonstration yesterday morning, today being the revolution's anniversary. The Independent Socialists also paraded. The police department began extraordinary precautions last night to be prepared for a possible coup, but beyond parading and speech making there was no serious disorder.

A second critical movement is reported from Bavaria, Bavarian members of the Reichstag already are kicking over the traces, and the Bavarian press is fomenting trouble on account of the National Council's action in approving yesterday the enforcement of disarmament March 15. The Munich Ausburg Evening Gazette says Bavaria does not dream of abandoning the Einwohnerwehr.

The third movement is afoot among industralists and bankers headed by Hugo Stinnes, who is dissatisfied with Dr. Simons" action at London. General dissatisfaction increases hourly as the economic results of Lloyd George's Rhineland customs house system become apparent.

With orders totalling hundreds of millions already cancelled, contracts declared broken and many business enterprises threatening to suspend on account of stoppage of trade between the occupied and unoccupied zones. Germany's business men are becoming frightened and are turning against the political leaders who brought the situation about.

Berlin, March 14.—A news agency dispatch from Stuttgart says the Chambers of Commerce throughout Wurttemburg, in a joint appeal to trade, commerce and industry and the population in general, urge a boycott against English, French and vokes what are termed the coercive Belgian goods until the Entente repsnalties against the Germans along the Rhine.

Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign secretary, delivered a 90 minute speech in the Reichstag Saturday, during which he gave an elaborate exposition of the proceedings at the recent reparations conference in London. The tone of the speech was noticeable for its extreme moderation. The speaker appeared to question whether the Allied demands had been rightly estimated in Germany.

"I must say," Dr. Simons declared, "that when one comes face to face with our opponents in London; when one hears what the situation is in their countries and under what distress and cares they themselves are laboring, it becomes clear that their demands are not inspired merely by the intoxicaiton of victory or lust for power, but that on the contrary they are the result of extraordinary heavy troubles and distress in their own countries."

While stoutly maintaining the alleged illegality of the penalties, he declared he was strongly opposed to rupturing relations with the Allies because "our position in the world is not such that it could be improved by a breach."

Dr. Simons admitted that it was possible to get a better world perspective from London than from Berlin and thereby realize how general the opinion is that Germany is in the wrong and has not done enough to requite that wrong.

"If we now resorted to severe measures," said Dr. Simons, "this would only be regarded as confirmation of that opinion and we should lose all that good will we so sorely need to extricate us from our great difficulties."

Dr. Simons described the proposed levy on German goods as "a gross blunder for the Allies themselves," because, he declared, it would drive trade with Germany into the hands of speculators and hopelessly impede the formidable task of restoring international exchange, which it would be impossible to do until the question of stabilizing German exchange was solved.

"In my opinion," said the foreign secretary, "the Allied tactics will soon show themselves to be what they are—a politico-financial Utopia and economic nonsense."

$1,000 UP FOR NEGROES WHO ASSAULTED WOMAN

Richmond, Va., March 14.—Citizens at a mass meeting in the Fulton Public School Building yesterday afternoon quickly subscribed $1,000 as a reward for the capture of the two masked negroes who entered the home of John E. Heisler early yesterday morning and assaulted his wife in bed while he lay helpless beside her, covered with pistols and threatened with death if he offered resistance.

More than 1,000 men, determined, but orderly, crowded the hall. All seemed disposed to let the law take its course if the negroes were caught but they made it clear that they wanted quick action in such an event. Among the speakers was George E. Wise, Commonwealth's Attorney, who gave assurance that he stands ready to see that the law is enforced to the limit if the culprits are brought before the bar of justice. Meanwhile he said it was well for every one to keep a cool head and refrain from any act not sanctioned by the law.

Several preachers addressed the meeting along similar lines, among them being the Rev. W. Thorburn Clark, of Fulton Baptist Church, who married the Heisler couple in his church three years ago. A special collection netting nearly $150 was taken up for the benefit of the couple when attention was called to the fact that Heisler is in frail health and recently was laid off from work. Mrs. Heisler is said to be holding up well. She is barely more than a girl.

Get Six Chickens

William Keys, a white man, who gave his age as nineteen, who says he is from Manassas, Va., was taken in custody early this morning by Policemen Gill and Nowland. The policemen recovered half a dozen chickens which they allege he placed in a crate in the city market. The officers told Justice Snow they were out on another mission and they saw Keys with a bag on his back and followed him to the market and they added they saw him place the chickens in the crate. Keys, however, stoutly maintained he was innocent and denied absolutely he was the man who deposited the chickens.

Justice W. S. Snow continued his case till the ownership of the chickens can be established. The young man said he wanted a lawyer.

SEVEN ARE DEAD IN RICHMOND FIRE

Three Civilians Among Those Killed When Walls Collapse

LOSS IS $800,000

One Retail Furniture Store Burned and Another Demolished—Six Story Building—Rescue Work Delayed

Richmond, Va., March 14.—Four firemen and three civilians are known to have been killed and others are believed buried in the debris in the most spectacular blaze in Richmond in years, when fire this afternoon burned the large furniture store of Jurgens Bros., in the heart of Richmond's shopping district. The property loss is placed at $800,000.

The known dead are: Firemen Thos. R. Johnson, Grover C. Richardson, S. B. Guthrie and J. B. Gallia.

The bodies of the four firemen and one unidentified civilian had been taken from the ruins by 9 o'clock last night, with workers still searching for others.

Seven firemen are in various hospitals as the result of the collapse of a building next to the burning structure. The collapse came in full view of a crowd estimated at 10,000. With the exception of two reserve companies the entire fire-fighting apparatus of the city was utilized in the four-hour fight before the flames were under control. Ten minutes after the fire was discovered flames were leaping high in the wind from the roof of the building.

The building in which the fire started was a six-story retail furniture store at Broad and Adams streets. None of the men killed or injured were in this building.

The building next to the burning structure was one story lower, and from its roof the firemen and a number of civilian volunteers were attacking the flames by digging holes through the walls to permit hose lines to be run through.

Without a second's warning the sixth story wall of the burning building toppled, catching the workers who were in its range and crushing the entire mass through to the basement, taking all five floors with it.

Seven firemen were dug from the debris and taken to hospitals. Capt. George M. Rogers, a 71-year-old fire-fighting veteran, was one of those caught by the falling wall, but escaped with a badly cut forehead. An ambulance surgeon patched him up and he went back to work.

Three eyewitnesses to the crash, who escaped through resting from their labors a few minutes, declared they saw three civilians go down with the roof. One body has been found, but was mutilated beyond recognition. It is being held at the morgue pending identification of a pair of Scout shoes he wore. Shortly after the first collapse a large section of the wall on Adams street fell with a crash that could be heard for blocks. Twelve firemen working in the street narrowly escaped by heeding yells of the crowd and scurrying to safety. Two were knocked down by the wind of the falling bricks.

While firemen and volunteer workers from the crowd were removing debris from the ground floor of the collapsed building, one of its walls began to bulge inward, necessitating delay of an hour in rescue work while the wall was propped up.

Damage to the Jurgens building, which was completely gutted, was estimated at $500,000, while that to the adjoining structure, occupied by the Hopkins Furniture Company, is placed at between $300,000 and $500,000.

TO-DAY'S THOUGHT. Books are the food of youth; the delight of old age; the ornament of prosperity; the refuge and comfort of adversity; a delight at home and no hindrance abroad; companions by night, in traveling, and in the country. Cicero.

A Secretary of Education. We wrote a little editorial last Friday, meaning all for the best, and really worried over the educational situation in the United States. But Mr. Leo. P. Harlow, whom apparently none know but to praise, has taken umbrageous exception to our well-intentioned remarks and consigned them and us to the nether regions; presumably as a new addition to the paving system in vogue in that sulphurous realm. And, were it not for the facts in the case—always more stubborn than editorial dicta—we should remain silent under the reflections—divers and sundry—cast on our bowed and humbled head.

Mr. Harlow strenuously objects to a hundred million dollars being spent at this time, or any other, by the federal government, for education in the United States. But the fact is that the 48 states now waste each year nearly double that amount—190 millions to be exact—for teaching children who are out of school. Our own state, Virginia, throws away $2,665,000 in this self-same foolish expenditure. We believe that federal supervision and co-operation would be able, in time, to save this waste, and thereby, instead of taxing the people 100 millions, put 90 million dollars each year into their pockets. Of this 100 millions, 7 millions are to be expended in the removal of illiteracy in the United States. 30 per cent of the 2,400,000 young men drafted for the recent war, were unable to read or write. Illiteracy is on the increase all over the country. So that expenditure should be praiseworthy! 7 millions are for the Americanization of the foreign-born. Truly, a noble and patriotic purpose. 50 millions for equalizing educational opportunities. 20 millions for physical education and sanitation. And 15 millions for preparation of teachers.

These are the objects for which the 100 millions are to be spent, as provided in this noxious Bill! But they are all worthy, and, furthermore, needed. We hold that a nation, like a chain, is no stronger than its weakest link; and the weakest link is ignorance! Nearly a hundred years ago the people of Texas, in their Declaration of Independence, uttered this profound truth: "unless people are educated and enlightened, it is idle to expect the continuance of civil liberty or the capacity of self-government."

As to states rights, we have loyally followed our Democratic leaders all our lives. We believe, with them, in a federal post-office; in a federal reserve bank; in federal control of certain public utilities and public necessities. And we believe it to be just as sound poltical doctrine to add, federal supervision and unification of the public school systems of the country. The bugbears and hobgoblins conjured up by the fertile brain of Mr. Harlow in his interpretation of a secretary ship of education, we frankly do not believe to exist. A secretary of education should not be more of a political monstrosity than a secretary of war, or of the navy, or of the interior, or of commerce. And we consider education in truth and fact, more important than any of them. We believe our public schools to be the very corner-stone of the structure of our government.

It is with mingled regret and chagrin that we must confess that we cannot claim Mr. Harlow as a "constant reader." Otherwise he would have known that the Gazette has within the past two months more than once expressed its firm belief in the immortal principles for which the Confederacy fought in the sixties. He would have known that in the past two weeks we attacked in these columns the insidious bureaucracy that is, and has been for some time past, slithering out its tentacles in our capital city.

As to the Smith-Towner Blli, if our friend will devise a better one, shorn of the fangs he professes to see in that, we will support it with all our heart. We are wedded to no bill, or to no measure—save that which will best serve the cause of education in all our broad land; which will give to every child his chance for an education equal to the best. We believe with the great Napoleon, "La carriere ouverte aux talens"—and who told his soldiers that in the knap sack of every one of them lay a marshal's baton!

Alexandria's Library. We are indeed glad to note that there are public-spirited women in Alexandria who are looking after the interests of the young people, and who give of their time and culture to the end that good books may be made easy of access.

In our recent editorial we had reference to a large public library, with spacious and well-lighted reading-rooms; with pictures and statuary; with thousands of volumes, "the treasured wealth of the world and the fit inheritance of generations and nations."

Perhaps the ancient institution in our midst may yet be the nucleus of a handsome and capacious building, with large endowments and income sufficient to render its blessings free as the sunlight that shall gild its storied windows!

All our editorial hats are off to these public-spirited ladies! Someday we may be able to help them in their hopes and aspirations.

Anonymous Letters. "If there is any place in the world for the writer of anonymous letters we have never been able to located it," says the Clarendon Chronicle. Don't worry, brother Bailie. There is a place for him in the next world where he won't need even his B. V. D's!

Irish Children Starving. The well-attended meeting held at the Richmond Theatre yesterday afternoon in the cause of Irish relief afforded the citizens of Alexandria their first opportunity to learn of the appalling conditions which exist in Ireland at the present time.

As pointed out by one of the speakers, Sir Philip Gibbs, the English war correspondent now lecturing in this country says that conditions in Ireland today are worse than those existing in Belgium during the German occupation in 1914. Because of the wholesale destruction of Irish life, industries and property — comparable to which Sherman's march to the sea during the Civil War was child's play—thousands of innocent Irish women and children are today actually starving. The pitiable plight of these appealing victims, due to conditions which they have no hand in making and over which they have no control, irresistibly appeals to the good people of Alexandria as it is doing to the country at large. No matter what one's opinion may be as to the causes of the present situation, conditions as they are at present in Ireland must inevitably call for an instant response from the great heart of America which has felt so deeply and responded so generously to the cry of all suffering and needy and helpless peoples.

The whole question of Irish relief is non-partisan and non-sectarian as was plainly demonstrated by the various political and religious beliefs represented by the speakers on yesterday's program. There is being organized in Alexandria a committee of representative citizens to solicit funds for the immediate relief of the horrible condition now existing in Ireland. Food, medicines and other supplies must be rushed at once to prevent the annihilation of a race which has played so great a part in the world's affairs and which has contributed always and well to the upbuilding of American institutions and to the defense of our honor in time of peril and distress.

Without a doubt, Alexandria will respond to so worthy a call.

LAUGHS

(From "Boys' Life.")

How To Tell a Bad Egg

Break it gently.

Quite Safe

Jones: "They say Greeb has been wandering in his mind lately."

Bones: "Well, he's safe enough; he can't go far."

Not This Time

Freddie: "Father, I had my fortune told today, and it was prophesied that I should have a new bicycle."

Father: "There you are, that only proves what I told you—these fortune-tellers never tell the truth."

Out of Order

"The next one in this room that speaks above a whisper will be put out," exclaimed the angry judge.

"Hip, hip, hooray!" shouted the prisoner as he ran for the door.

Ripe

First-Class Scout: "I found a little green snake this morning."

Tenderfoot: "Better leave it alone. It might be as dangerous as a ripe one."

Can

Willie: "Can you take eight for one?"

Teacher: "No, Willie, certainly not."

Willie: "Well, father said you can—eight quarts of milk from one cow."

Speed

An Englishman, recently arrived in the U. S. A., at New York City, asked a smart looking newsboy to show him about the city.

When they came to the American Surety Co. building, the Englishman asked: "Pray, my lad, how long did it take to build that building?"

"About two years," the boy replied."

My, my," said the Englishman, "we could build it in England." Next they came to the National Park Bank building. "How long did it take to build that building?" the Englishman asked.

"About a year," was the answer. "That was a long time. We English would have built it in six months." Then they came to the Woolworth building. "And how long were you building this wonderful structure?" I don't know, sir," replied the boy, "it wasn't there last night!"

A Hole Lot

Emigration Officer: "And what are you going to do?"

Emigrant: "Take up land sir."

Emigration Officer: "Much?"

Emigrant: "Oh, about a shovel at a time, sir!"

A Raise

Two drummers in conversation:

"Jack Rose handed in his resignation as a bluff to make the firm raise his salary."

'Did they raise it?'

"Yes, but another man is drawing it."

Puzzled

Prisoner: 'There is but one question that has been puzzling me ever since I came here."

Warden: "And that?"

Prisoner: "Is this suit which I am wearing, white with black stripes or black with white stripes?"

"No Wonder"

"How old is your little brother?" inquired Willie.

"He's a year old," replied Tommy

"Huh! I've got a dog a year old and he can walk twice as well as your brother."

"That's nothing. Your dog got twice as many legs."

Taking and Mistaking

Landlubber: "Do you know, I'm so short sighted that I once took a sailor for a smokestack."

Sea Scout: "That's nothing, I once took my brother for a sail."

Change

"Do you notice any change in me?"

"No, why?"

"I've just swallowed a nickel."

Pure, Rich Blood Will Keep Your Body Vigorous and Healthy

When impurities creep into your blood the first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradual lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown.

Nearly everybody needs a few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood remedy, to cleanse out all impurities about twice a year. It is an excellent idea to take this precaution to keep the system in a vigorous condition so as to more easily resist disease to which every one is subject. S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

INGOMAR THEATRE

Not since "Humoresque" has a production conspicuously revealing the childhood of the slums been attempted, with the exception of Real art's "The Plaything of Broadway," starring Justine Johnstone. Many of the most effective scenes of the play are laid on New York's lower East Side, and dozens of children ranging from babies of a few months to half grown boys are shown in these scenes. One group of five, six, seven, eight, nine, and ten, respectively, each a distinctive type, was obtained.

The lovable little character of Jimmie is interpreted by Raymond Hewitt. The part affords some splendid scenes with the star, Miss Justine Johnstone, and the lead, Cranford Kent, who portrays the role of the ascetic Dr. Jennings.

The picture comes to the Ingomar Theater today.

ALEXANDRIA ASTROLOGER ON HARDING'S HOROSCOPE

That we have made no mistake in the choice of our President, let the stars give evidence.

Born November 2nd, 1865, we find in the first house, ascendant, Scorpio, the Sun, Mercury, Saturn and Mars. Next to them are Venus on one side and Jupiter on the other, supporting all the good effects.

Planets in the first house brightens the life and stabilizes the nature from early childhood, making him cheerful companionable, ambitious to succeed in life, courageous in overcoming obstacles; upright and honest in dealings. Mercury makes the person quick-witted and sharp. Saturn assures success through patience, persistence, self control and restraint, with wonderful capacity for work. Never seem to tire and never give up, no matter what the obstacles. Have infinite confidence in ability to accomplish that which is undertaken. Mars increases energy. Venus in Libra insures an appreciative audience whenever appearing in public. Strengthens the love nature, calls out the artistic side making fond of art, music, poetry, increases popularity, making social intercourse smooth, so that many friends are made and kept.

Jupiter in second house, gives great financial prosperity. Sagittarius gives success, a broad humane and philosophical mind, a reverent and religious disposition, rising to the top and becoming leaders in church or state, particularly in governmental offices.

Continuing this investigation we find the planets on election day, November 2nd, 1920, in the progressed horoscope, the same good aspects.

The Sun with Venus, brings honor and social preferment. Mercury, a period of unusual activity, he will further his ambitions and succeed in business by new ventures. Saturn will cause him ably to discharge his duties in a most effective, systematic and tactful manner. He will have greater opportunities for advancement than before, will be able to assume the added responsibilities with credit He will be benefitted by his associates drawn to him with full confidence and have deep insight into all problems of life.

Jupiter most fortunate, financial prosperity and undertaking, succeeds. Will gain credit with philanthropic or charitable undertakings, will enjoy much socal success and domestic happiness. Ambitions that seemed for years impossible of realization, are likely to be gratified.

Neptune gives a caution; liable to lose by speculation in large companies where the stock is watered.

TRIAL OF CLARA SMITH HAMON

Ardmore, Okla., March 14.—The state will rest its case tomorrow in the trial of Clara Smith Hamon, charged with the murder of Jake L. Hamon, Republican National Committeeman, from Oklahoma, Four of the remaining chief witnesses will be summoned to the stand. They are Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, widow; Frank L. Ketch, Hamon's business manager; Erreta Dunlap, close business associate of Hamon, and Sam Blair, newspaper man, who is alleged to have obtained in Mexico last December Clara Hamon's story of Hamon's death.

Efforts on the part of State's attorneys to establish that Clara Hamon is now 29 years old instead of 27, as has been declared by the defendant and touched upon in evidence already introduced, became known yesterday. Much importance is attached to this issue due to the fact that the defense counsel and the defendant have laid stress on the youth of the defendant at the time she met Hamon. The State's evidence will tend to prove that at the time she became acquainted with Hamon she was 19, the State's Attorney said.

IN THE SPRING TAKE GUDE'S PEPTO-MANGAN

Restores the Quality of Blood, Drives Out Impurities, Builds Up the Red Corpuscles

IMPROVES THE COMPLEXION

A Standby Among Physicians For 30 Years. In Tablet as Well as Liquid Form

You notice complexions in the Spring. People who have plenty of rich red blood have lips a deep, rosy red, eyes bright and clear. Good complexions are based on the solid foundation of good blood, with plenty of red corpuscles. When blood becomes clogged with impurities, when the red corpuscles are not absorbing enough oxygen from the lungs and distributing it to the cells throughout the body good complexions fade. Not only that, but you feel tired and exhausted all the time. Your shoulders droop and you lounge around and lean against anything handy. You lack energy because your blood is weak and thin—not enough red corpuscles.

People call it "Spring Fever." Call it what you will, it is bad blood. It weakens powers of resistance.

If you feel that way you should take that exceptionally good blood tonic, Gude's Pepto-Mangan, for a while. It will make rich red blood. For thirty years it has been a standby among physicians. It will help you to build up this Spring. All that comes from having good blood with plenty of red corpuscles will come to you.

When you go to your druggist's be sure to get the genuine Gude's Pepto-Mangan with the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package. It is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Both have the same medicinal value.

As Old as His Arteries

The doctor can't help it

He knows that the man has hard arteries, high blood pressure, and the beginning of kidney and heart disease, due to long neglected, chronic constipation.

It isn't the other man's fault—directly. He never realized that constipation was a serious thing.

Year in and year out he has taken pills, castor oil, mineral waters and salts—and now he wonders why his health is so bad.

Nujol is for just such cases as this.

It works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel movements at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol trade-mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet, "Thirty Feet of Danger".

Bonuses Are Offered to Bring Physicians to Bay State Towns

Boston, Mass., March 13.—Innumerable small towns of Massachusetts are offering special inducements in the way of "cash bonus" in their efforts to attract young physicians to settle in their midst. More than 70 towns are without doctors and these are "borrowing" doctors from adjacent communities.

Many of these towns are in the Berkshires. One, the town of Otis, offers to give $500 annually out of the town cash box to the physician who will come there to practice. The various town authorities are getting in touch with the medical faculties of Harvard and other schools in the hope that graduates will be drawn. It is estimated that the average country doctor in this State earns about $2,000 a year.

BLAZE IN CAMP MERRITT RAZES MANY BUILDINGS

Camp Merritt, N. J., March 14.—A destructive fire raged in Camp Merritt last night.

At 10 o'clock 100 buildings had been destroyed.

When the firemen arrived they found themselves handicapped by the lack of water supply. At 11:15 the fire was under control. While it raged the blaze lit up the skies for miles and many persons hurried to the scene. All the damage was done in the southwest section of the camp.

Practically the entire group of buildings in that section were destroyed. They formerly had been used as hospital and barracks. Flames were discovered in six or seven of the buildings at the same time.

The best the firemen could do in the absence of water power was to fight the fire with chemicals.

Very few men are in camp here and most of the buildings were unoccupied.

RICHMOND THEATRE

"Not Guilty," today's attraction at the Richmond Theatre, is a drama of such naturalness as to give it an appeal that is certain to prove irresistible. It is life. One feels it from the moment the first character makes his entrance. Every now and then the developing dramatic action is given a sudden twist and a real surprise is unfolded. Twin brothers love the same girl, but one is a murderer. The innocent one takes the guilty one's role. The girl loves first one and then the other. The action ranges from the heart of the Adirondacks to India. The villain is deeply villainous and the hero refreshingly self effacing. There's a swing to the story which will please our patrons.

BURGLARS MURDER PASSAIC MERCHANT

New York, March 14.—Bound and gagged and with a towel wrapped tightly about his head and face, Samuel Kahn, well to do proprietor of a men's furnishing store, was found murdered by burglars in the rear of his establishment at 36 Monroe street, Passaic, New Jersey, yesterday.

The police, when they arrived about eight hours after Kahn's death, found the place ransacked. Desks and closets were smashed, an old safe ripped open and things were strewn about the floor.

Every evidence pointed to the fact that the burglars entered through a rear window, attacked Kahn while he was still in bed and made a thorough search for money. Kahn was known to secrete money in his place of business.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, gives out the following statement:

"The price of the FORDSON Tractor has been reduced from $790.00 to $625.00, effective immediately.

"This price change has been made possible through lower costs of materials and the fact that we are now located in our new Tractor Plant with greatly increased economic manufacturing facilities in immediate connection with our foundry and machine shops and large blast furnaces where iron is poured directly from the ore, giving us maximum efficiency with the power to reduce cost of production, and down comes the price in line with our policy to market our products at the lowest possible figure without in any way affecting our high standard of quality.

"We are particularly pleased in being able to bring about this big reduction in price at this time because the farmer needs all the help we can give him and this big cut in price will be the means of placing a valuable power unit within the reach of practically every one of them, not to mention industrial and commercial concerns which likewise have benefitted through its use and are already realizing, to a much greater extent, its value as a power and hauling unit. But particularly has the FORDSON Tractor proved a most valuable factor in the saving of farm labor, at the same time increasing the per acre crop yield as well as making possible a utilization of previously uncultivated land, to say nothing of removing no end of drudgery.

"There is no question that the use of machine power on the farm is the greatest advancement made in the development of agriculture, not only in money saving and money making results, as well as raising the standards of living on the farm to a much higher level, but because of its proved value in making every type of land more productive, and consequently our desire to place the FORDSON within the reach of all.

"THERE IS NO CHANGE IN THE PRESENT FORD CAR AND TRUCK PRICES, which are already at the lowest possible figure and now with rock bottom reached on the tractor price a further reduction in price of either the car, truck or tractor is out of the question; in fact, the big price cuts have been made in anticipation of continuous maximum production and increases may be necessary before long if a large volume of new business is not obtained. Therefore, present prices of Ford products cannot be guaranteed against possible increases."
